

Flipbook Pictures

Declarative Sentences

A declarative sentence is a sentence that tells something.

interrogative Sentences

An interrogative sentence asks a question.

Declarative Sentences

A declarative sentence is a sentence that tells something.

interrogative Sentences

An interrogative sentence asks a question.

Declarative and Interrogative Sentences

Directions: After teaching your lesson on Declarative and Interrogative sentences, have the students practice reading, sorting, and adding the correct punctuation to these sentences. You can have the students cut the sentences out and glue them in their notebook or you can create a flipbook.

The Saguaro Cactus grows in the desert _____

Have you ever visited the desert _____

Does the desert have a hot, dry climate _____

How tall can the saguaro cactus grow _____

The saguaro grows about one inch per year _____

Does the desert have a hot, dry climate _____

What protects the outside of the cactus _____

Native Americans ate the juicy tasty fruit from the saguaro cactus _____

You can use these smaller strips for the flipbook. Check out the pictures of the completed flipbook.