

animals

early

eyes

warm

water

full

Directions for use:

Use these High Frequency Word cards for a Matching Game or Concentration in your literacy center. They can also be glued into your students' notebooks for them to practice at home.

A Walk in the Desert

- near the beginning of something

- a large group of living things that move around by themselves to find food. Birds, fish, reptiles, mammals, amphibians, insects, snails and worms are some of the major kinds of animals.

- having or giving off some heat

- an organ in the body that allows animals and mammals to see.

- not able to hold anymore

- a clear liquid that has no taste or smell

Directions for use:
Use these High Frequency Word cards and definitions for a Concentration Game in your literacy center or they can also be glued into your students notebooks for them to practice at home.

A Walk
in the Desert